

MULQUEEN GRANTS ARNSTEIN DEMAND FOR TRIAL AT ONCE

Rebukes Assistant District Attorney Dooling for Asking New Delay.

Judge Mulqueen to-day in General Sessions overruled the motion of Assistant District Attorney John T. Dooling for a further postponement of the trial of Jules W. ("Nick") Arnstein, William W. Eastwood and David W. Sullivan, under indictment for alleged connection with the $1,000,000 Wall Street bond robbery conspiracy. Mr. Dooling is asking for delay, said he had been in Chicago on Federal Court business.

William J. Fallon, representing Arnstein, who is in Ludlow Street Jail under Federal Court contempt order, said he had been ready for seven months and asked for an immediate trial.

Judge Mulqueen said: "These cases will be marked 'ready' and will be taken up in the order in which they appear on the calendar. There are 810 bail cases now awaiting call on the calendar. The postponing of indictments has resulted in practical immunity for many indicted persons." Turning to Mr. Dooling, the court said:

"You should stay in New York. You have had enough to do to attend to your other cases."

It is expected Arnstein will be tried next week.

3 Eggs
1 cup "Sealect"
Evaporated Milk
1 cup cold Water
1 tablespoon Cornstarch
Salt and Pepper
1 tablespoon Drippings

Beat eggs lightly. Dissolve tablespoon of cornstarch in two tablespoons of milk. Stir this into cup of milk and add cup of water. Now add this to beaten eggs. Melt drippings in frying pan over a slow fire. Pour in mixture and cook slowly until omelet is firm. Then brown over slightly stronger heat, add seasoning.
